

The Yellow Clown from Texas

(to the tune of The Yellow Rose of Texas)

F
There's a yellow clown from Texas

F C7
Ruling in D.C. - Helping out his buddies

C7
And shafting you and me.

F
Now he's clowning in New York at the RNC

C7 F
But when we play our ukuleles the clown is history.

F
There's a yellow clown from Texas

F
Who talks daily with the lord

C7
But not for very long; the boy gets easily bored.

F
He can praise his snazzy flight-suit and his golf game too,

C7 F
But when we play our ukuleles the clown will soon be through.

(Note: Can be played with two chords in "F" or any other key. -- Tom Harker)
